Re: Case No. 09-37125 ;
Objection; Notice of Error and Request for Production.

Dear Counsel,

Enclosed please find the Objection to the Motion to Vacate Stay, Notice of Error; Request for Order to Compel Production and To Vacate Hearing set for September 15, 2009.

Additionally, I am requesting verification and full accounting. That form is also enclosed.

There is and remains at all times material to this and the state proceedings a lack of production on the original promissory note.

This operates in law and fact to preclude the claims and actions and I have recently learned of my error and mistake in listing Aurora Loan Services as a creditor which was a mistake among many other defects. For example, it is a matter of public record that AURORA LOAN SERVICES LLC, is not a registered corporation with the New York Department of State Division of Banking or Corporations.

Therefore, there may be a construction upon the record which is to be judicially noticed by Judge Morris. I believe therefore, that this is more than sufficient cause for the court to grant the relief I am requesting.

Thank you and please govern your selves accordingly.

Very truly,

Suzan R. Abbott
